

Progress of the Presidential Canvass.

JOHNSON ON SEYMOUR.

The Revenue Muddle
Still Perplexed.

ccc. ccc. ccc.

Notes Dispersed to the Louisville-Jones
WASHINGTON, August 8.

THE CAVAN.

The friends of Senator Hendricks in this city have received many letters from Mr. Peabody, who is very anxious relative here that the prospect in Ohio is good. The Democrats in Maine expect to make extensive gains gains in September. The extreme fair West looks up beautifully.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

A number of New York politicians called on the President yesterday. In conversation on the subject of the Presidential campaign, one of the party asked Mr. Johnson what he thought of Seymour, to which A. J. replied, shrugging his shoulders: "What does Governor Seymour think of the administration?" It is blighted by those who have the secrets of the cabinet back staircase at the White House that are ordered of the yards, Ward, and Gentry were recalled in the present national struggle. The recent confidential reports about the Cabinet are most dismal. Browning and McCulloch are a shade worse than doubtful. Faunt is also doubtful. The only person of the Executive family who is an out-and-out Democrat is Senator Patterson, of Tennessee, the President's son-in-law.

A SNOWY AVENUE.

The internal revenue imbroglie seems as far from settlement as usual. Hollins has played his cards well and still holds the place. He is in close league with the radicals and has the law on his side. The President wanted to appoint Burbridge, but it was deferred by strong letters from Kentucky. I am authorized to state that Mr. Belmont did not recommend Burbridge. Attorney General Davis expects to give his opinion on the President's nomination. Hollins' resignation at the Cabinet meeting, on Tuesday. The legal authorities prepared for their opinion are all adverse to the position assumed by Mr. Johnson.

THE DEPARTURE AT THE SOUTH.

The question of preserving the peace in the Southern States is seriously engaging the attention of the Administration. The consolidation of the troops in those quarters recommended in several orders will be attended, they are allowed to remain in their present location, subject to the same orders that apply in Connecticut. They will not be called into requisition to do police duty, except upon the call of the Governors or Legislatures of the States in which they are stationed.

EXTRASORABLE.

The radicals of this city, headed on by Captain Buchanan, of the Confederate navy, have made President of the Maryland Agricultural College. Captain Buchanan is a native Marylander, related to the best people in the State and perfectly competent. But the radical idea is that a rebel must either starve or turn radical.

THE COTTON.

Advices received here from the cotton states are very unfavorable. In Florida and South Carolina the cotton crop has caused much destruction. Estimates for the cotton-tropic crop do not exceed two millions of bales.

OFFICES OPEN.

Notwithstanding the general dullness here, over twenty offices have obtained interviews with the President-to-day.

MISSES IN THE SOUTH.

Meeting at Miss McElroy's Residence, Arrived, Washington, D. C., August 8.
South Carolina Democratic Convention—
New York Convention and Nominees and the House of Representatives—
Senate—Wade Hampton—
Stated General Freeman—
Actions of the Louisiana Legislature.

COLUMBIA, S. C., August 9.

The Democratic Electoral Commission adjourned yesterday. Every district of the State thirty-one in number, was represented.

In motion of Mr. Hampton, Captain M. M. May was made Vice-President of the convention.

On motion of Mr. S. S. Collier, the resolution to withdraw from the Southern League was voted down.

Mr. S. S. Collier was invited to speak on the platform and great applause.

On motion of Judge Aldrich, a resolution of South Carolina, was extended to the delegations from the Northern and Western delegations. The resolutions were so cordially received at New York.

The resolutions say we accept the reception as an evidence of our sincerity and gratefully decline that it has done more to heal the wounds of the past than any other course.

On motion of Mr. Hampton, Captain M. M. May was made Vice-President of the convention.

On motion of Mr. Collier, the resolution to withdraw from the Southern League was voted down.

Mr. S. S. Collier was invited to speak on the platform and great applause.

On motion of Mr. Hampton, Captain M. M. May was made Vice-President of the convention.

On motion of Mr. Collier, the resolution to withdraw from the Southern League was voted down.

Mr. S. S. Collier was invited to speak on the platform and great applause.

On motion of Mr. Hampton, Captain M. M. May was made Vice-President of the convention.

On motion of Mr. Collier, the resolution to withdraw from the Southern League was voted down.

Mr. S. S. Collier was invited to speak on the platform and great applause.

On motion of Mr. Hampton, Captain M. M. May was made Vice-President of the convention.

On motion of Mr. Collier, the resolution to withdraw from the Southern League was voted down.

Mr. S. S. Collier was invited to speak on the platform and great applause.

On motion of Mr. Hampton, Captain M. M. May was made Vice-President of the convention.

On motion of Mr. Collier, the resolution to withdraw from the Southern League was voted down.

Mr. S. S. Collier was invited to speak on the platform and great applause.

On motion of Mr. Hampton, Captain M. M. May was made Vice-President of the convention.

On motion of Mr. Collier, the resolution to withdraw from the Southern League was voted down.

Mr. S. S. Collier was invited to speak on the platform and great applause.

On motion of Mr. Hampton, Captain M. M. May was made Vice-President of the convention.

On motion of Mr. Collier, the resolution to withdraw from the Southern League was voted down.

Mr. S. S. Collier was invited to speak on the platform and great applause.

On motion of Mr. Hampton, Captain M. M. May was made Vice-President of the convention.

On motion of Mr. Collier, the resolution to withdraw from the Southern League was voted down.

Mr. S. S. Collier was invited to speak on the platform and great applause.

On motion of Mr. Hampton, Captain M. M. May was made Vice-President of the convention.

On motion of Mr. Collier, the resolution to withdraw from the Southern League was voted down.

Mr. S. S. Collier was invited to speak on the platform and great applause.

On motion of Mr. Hampton, Captain M. M. May was made Vice-President of the convention.

On motion of Mr. Collier, the resolution to withdraw from the Southern League was voted down.

Mr. S. S. Collier was invited to speak on the platform and great applause.

On motion of Mr. Hampton, Captain M. M. May was made Vice-President of the convention.

On motion of Mr. Collier, the resolution to withdraw from the Southern League was voted down.

Mr. S. S. Collier was invited to speak on the platform and great applause.

On motion of Mr. Hampton, Captain M. M. May was made Vice-President of the convention.

On motion of Mr. Collier, the resolution to withdraw from the Southern League was voted down.

Mr. S. S. Collier was invited to speak on the platform and great applause.

On motion of Mr. Hampton, Captain M. M. May was made Vice-President of the convention.

On motion of Mr. Collier, the resolution to withdraw from the Southern League was voted down.

Mr. S. S. Collier was invited to speak on the platform and great applause.

On motion of Mr. Hampton, Captain M. M. May was made Vice-President of the convention.

On motion of Mr. Collier, the resolution to withdraw from the Southern League was voted down.

Mr. S. S. Collier was invited to speak on the platform and great applause.

On motion of Mr. Hampton, Captain M. M. May was made Vice-President of the convention.

On motion of Mr. Collier, the resolution to withdraw from the Southern League was voted down.

Mr. S. S. Collier was invited to speak on the platform and great applause.

On motion of Mr. Hampton, Captain M. M. May was made Vice-President of the convention.

On motion of Mr. Collier, the resolution to withdraw from the Southern League was voted down.

Mr. S. S. Collier was invited to speak on the platform and great applause.

On motion of Mr. Hampton, Captain M. M. May was made Vice-President of the convention.

On motion of Mr. Collier, the resolution to withdraw from the Southern League was voted down.

Mr. S. S. Collier was invited to speak on the platform and great applause.

On motion of Mr. Hampton, Captain M. M. May was made Vice-President of the convention.

On motion of Mr. Collier, the resolution to withdraw from the Southern League was voted down.

Mr. S. S. Collier was invited to speak on the platform and great applause.

On motion of Mr. Hampton, Captain M. M. May was made Vice-President of the convention.

On motion of Mr. Collier, the resolution to withdraw from the Southern League was voted down.

Mr. S. S. Collier was invited to speak on the platform and great applause.

On motion of Mr. Hampton, Captain M. M. May was made Vice-President of the convention.

On motion of Mr. Collier, the resolution to withdraw from the Southern League was voted down.

Mr. S. S. Collier was invited to speak on the platform and great applause.

On motion of Mr. Hampton, Captain M. M. May was made Vice-President of the convention.

On motion of Mr. Collier, the resolution to withdraw from the Southern League was voted down.

Mr. S. S. Collier was invited to speak on the platform and great applause.

On motion of Mr. Hampton, Captain M. M. May was made Vice-President of the convention.

On motion of Mr. Collier, the resolution to withdraw from the Southern League was voted down.

Mr. S. S. Collier was invited to speak on the platform and great applause.

On motion of Mr. Hampton, Captain M. M. May was made Vice-President of the convention.

On motion of Mr. Collier, the resolution to withdraw from the Southern League was voted down.

Mr. S. S. Collier was invited to speak on the platform and great applause.

On motion of Mr. Hampton, Captain M. M. May was made Vice-President of the convention.

On motion of Mr. Collier, the resolution to withdraw from the Southern League was voted down.

Mr. S. S. Collier was invited to speak on the platform and great applause.

On motion of Mr. Hampton, Captain M. M. May was made Vice-President of the convention.

On motion of Mr. Collier, the resolution to withdraw from the Southern League was voted down.

Mr. S. S. Collier was invited to speak on the platform and great applause.

On motion of Mr. Hampton, Captain M. M. May was made Vice-President of the convention.

On motion of Mr. Collier, the resolution to withdraw from the Southern League was voted down.

Mr. S. S. Collier was invited to speak on the platform and great applause.

On motion of Mr. Hampton, Captain M. M. May was made Vice-President of the convention.

On motion of Mr. Collier, the resolution to withdraw from the Southern League was voted down.

Mr. S. S. Collier was invited to speak on the platform and great applause.

On motion of Mr. Hampton, Captain M. M. May was made Vice-President of the convention.

On motion of Mr. Collier, the resolution to withdraw from the Southern League was voted down.

Mr. S. S. Collier was invited to speak on the platform and great applause.

On motion of Mr. Hampton, Captain M. M. May was made Vice-President of the convention.

On motion of Mr. Collier, the resolution to withdraw from the Southern League was voted down.

Mr. S. S. Collier was invited to speak on the platform and great applause.

On motion of Mr. Hampton, Captain M. M. May was made Vice-President of the convention.

On motion of Mr. Collier, the resolution to withdraw from the Southern League was voted down.

Mr. S. S. Collier was invited to speak on the platform and great applause.

On motion of Mr. Hampton, Captain M. M. May was made Vice-President of the convention.

On motion of Mr. Collier, the resolution to withdraw from the Southern League was voted down.

Mr. S. S. Collier was invited to speak on the platform and great applause.

On motion of Mr. Hampton, Captain M. M. May was made Vice-President of the convention.

On motion of Mr. Collier, the resolution to withdraw from the Southern League was voted down.

Mr. S. S. Collier was invited to speak on the platform and great applause.

On motion of Mr. Hampton, Captain M. M. May was made Vice-President of the convention.

On motion of Mr. Collier, the resolution to withdraw from the Southern League was voted down.

Mr. S. S. Collier was invited to speak on the platform and great applause.

On motion of Mr. Hampton, Captain M. M. May was made Vice-President of the convention.

On motion of Mr. Collier, the resolution to withdraw from the Southern League was voted down.

Mr. S. S. Collier was invited to speak on the platform and great applause.

On motion of Mr. Hampton, Captain M. M. May was made Vice-President of the convention.

On motion of Mr. Collier, the resolution to withdraw from the Southern League was voted down.

Mr. S. S. Collier was invited to speak on the platform and great applause.

On motion of Mr. Hampton, Captain M. M. May was made Vice-President of the convention.

On motion of Mr. Collier, the resolution to withdraw from the Southern League was voted down.

Mr. S. S. Collier was invited to speak on the platform and great applause.

On motion of Mr. Hampton, Captain M. M. May was made Vice-President of the convention.

On motion of Mr. Collier, the resolution to withdraw from the Southern League was voted down.

Mr. S. S. Collier was invited to speak

Louisville Journal.

Democratic Nominations.

FOR PRESIDENT,
HORATIO SEYMOUR,
OF NEW YORK.

FOR THE PRESIDENT,
FRANCIS P. BLAIR, JR.,
OF MARYLAND.

MONDAY, AUGUST 10, 1868.

Kentucky News.

The Louisville fair passed off satisfactorily. Kentucky is affected with many small rednesses. The Red River water has been turned their supply.

A negro man was shot and killed by another negro in Bell County, just Monday.

The Louisville American and the Courier and Times were at the Kentucky Military Institute, near Frankfort.

The Courier visited Lexington on the other side of the river, and the Times did the same, and met there by a bridge across the river.

Seven men were severely and two gored in an exchange of fire between the rebels and Unionists.

A negro family being sent south through a said to have been seen in New Orleans going to the South.

The Times is now publishing its columns.

Southern News.

Great hope of a large crop of cotton in Texas. Southern waterfalls are reported to be full.

The present Georgia paper was formerly an expressman.

Waterfalls are failing for it to go in a column.

The Chattanooga papers are now for sale.

Morris, Georgia, is filled with a large number of soldiers.

The Times of Atlanta, containing the news of Representatives Tamm and all others received at the last session.

Our State is in a very bad financial condition, and contains no taxable wealth.

Franklin and Louisville have adopted regular fire-brigades.

A young householder was captured and immediately released.

The old and weathered Negro, Sam, was received at Richmond, now engaged in tramping.

Our Congress is in session, containing the news of Representatives Tamm and all others received at the last session.

It is said that a fire company has been dissolved on the part of some leading radicals of Nashville.

The contract for building the Mohawk and Susquehanna Bridge over the Susquehanna was let a few days ago. It is to be completed in ninety days.

Robert Stewart, a worthy citizen of Lawrenceburg, was stabbed and killed in a recent affray by a man named Clements. Whisky was the primary cause.

A savage dog attacked a fat boy on the street in Charleston, S. C., and the boy was mangy.

Our Model People

There are in every community a few dull people who are mediocre in everything, birth, position, brains, and personal appearance, and yet they roll along in the world, never treading on the sensitive spot of the public mind.

Commissioner Special Acted in Nashville, as in many other things, to have their hands tied.

It is evident of one's own meanness.

The Times is now published.

They are placed for their uniform dress and decoration, and others are thanked for their services.

They are all to meet with us.

How to Reconquer a Democratic majority in Kansas seems remains at the time to the next meeting, having many of his friends.

The trial of Mr. Isaac Russell for killing Hopper is progressing at Houston, Tex. That bar is the evidence clearly establishes the fact that he was a negro.

Some negroes and men with their faces blacked up, a Democratic negro, are seen every day. Having the use of his hands, however, it is evident that he is a negro.

Commissioner Special Acted in Nashville, as in many other things, to have their hands tied.

It is evident of one's own meanness.

The Times is now published.

They are placed for their uniform dress and decoration, and others are thanked for their services.

They are all to meet with us.

How to Reconquer a Democratic majority in Kansas seems remains at the time to the next meeting, having many of his friends.

The trial of Mr. Isaac Russell for killing Hopper is progressing at Houston, Tex. That bar is the evidence clearly establishes the fact that he was a negro.

Some negroes and men with their faces blacked up, a Democratic negro, are seen every day. Having the use of his hands, however, it is evident that he is a negro.

Commissioner Special Acted in Nashville, as in many other things, to have their hands tied.

It is evident of one's own meanness.

The Times is now published.

They are placed for their uniform dress and decoration, and others are thanked for their services.

They are all to meet with us.

How to Reconquer a Democratic majority in Kansas seems remains at the time to the next meeting, having many of his friends.

The trial of Mr. Isaac Russell for killing Hopper is progressing at Houston, Tex. That bar is the evidence clearly establishes the fact that he was a negro.

Some negroes and men with their faces blacked up, a Democratic negro, are seen every day. Having the use of his hands, however, it is evident that he is a negro.

Commissioner Special Acted in Nashville, as in many other things, to have their hands tied.

It is evident of one's own meanness.

The Times is now published.

They are placed for their uniform dress and decoration, and others are thanked for their services.

They are all to meet with us.

How to Reconquer a Democratic majority in Kansas seems remains at the time to the next meeting, having many of his friends.

The trial of Mr. Isaac Russell for killing Hopper is progressing at Houston, Tex. That bar is the evidence clearly establishes the fact that he was a negro.

Some negroes and men with their faces blacked up, a Democratic negro, are seen every day. Having the use of his hands, however, it is evident that he is a negro.

Commissioner Special Acted in Nashville, as in many other things, to have their hands tied.

It is evident of one's own meanness.

The Times is now published.

They are placed for their uniform dress and decoration, and others are thanked for their services.

They are all to meet with us.

How to Reconquer a Democratic majority in Kansas seems remains at the time to the next meeting, having many of his friends.

The trial of Mr. Isaac Russell for killing Hopper is progressing at Houston, Tex. That bar is the evidence clearly establishes the fact that he was a negro.

Some negroes and men with their faces blacked up, a Democratic negro, are seen every day. Having the use of his hands, however, it is evident that he is a negro.

Commissioner Special Acted in Nashville, as in many other things, to have their hands tied.

It is evident of one's own meanness.

The Times is now published.

They are placed for their uniform dress and decoration, and others are thanked for their services.

They are all to meet with us.

How to Reconquer a Democratic majority in Kansas seems remains at the time to the next meeting, having many of his friends.

The trial of Mr. Isaac Russell for killing Hopper is progressing at Houston, Tex. That bar is the evidence clearly establishes the fact that he was a negro.

Some negroes and men with their faces blacked up, a Democratic negro, are seen every day. Having the use of his hands, however, it is evident that he is a negro.

Commissioner Special Acted in Nashville, as in many other things, to have their hands tied.

It is evident of one's own meanness.

The Times is now published.

They are placed for their uniform dress and decoration, and others are thanked for their services.

They are all to meet with us.

How to Reconquer a Democratic majority in Kansas seems remains at the time to the next meeting, having many of his friends.

The trial of Mr. Isaac Russell for killing Hopper is progressing at Houston, Tex. That bar is the evidence clearly establishes the fact that he was a negro.

Some negroes and men with their faces blacked up, a Democratic negro, are seen every day. Having the use of his hands, however, it is evident that he is a negro.

Commissioner Special Acted in Nashville, as in many other things, to have their hands tied.

It is evident of one's own meanness.

The Times is now published.

They are placed for their uniform dress and decoration, and others are thanked for their services.

They are all to meet with us.

How to Reconquer a Democratic majority in Kansas seems remains at the time to the next meeting, having many of his friends.

The trial of Mr. Isaac Russell for killing Hopper is progressing at Houston, Tex. That bar is the evidence clearly establishes the fact that he was a negro.

Some negroes and men with their faces blacked up, a Democratic negro, are seen every day. Having the use of his hands, however, it is evident that he is a negro.

Commissioner Special Acted in Nashville, as in many other things, to have their hands tied.

It is evident of one's own meanness.

The Times is now published.

They are placed for their uniform dress and decoration, and others are thanked for their services.

They are all to meet with us.

How to Reconquer a Democratic majority in Kansas seems remains at the time to the next meeting, having many of his friends.

The trial of Mr. Isaac Russell for killing Hopper is progressing at Houston, Tex. That bar is the evidence clearly establishes the fact that he was a negro.

Some negroes and men with their faces blacked up, a Democratic negro, are seen every day. Having the use of his hands, however, it is evident that he is a negro.

Commissioner Special Acted in Nashville, as in many other things, to have their hands tied.

It is evident of one's own meanness.

The Times is now published.

They are placed for their uniform dress and decoration, and others are thanked for their services.

They are all to meet with us.

How to Reconquer a Democratic majority in Kansas seems remains at the time to the next meeting, having many of his friends.

The trial of Mr. Isaac Russell for killing Hopper is progressing at Houston, Tex. That bar is the evidence clearly establishes the fact that he was a negro.

Some negroes and men with their faces blacked up, a Democratic negro, are seen every day. Having the use of his hands, however, it is evident that he is a negro.

Commissioner Special Acted in Nashville, as in many other things, to have their hands tied.

It is evident of one's own meanness.

The Times is now published.

They are placed for their uniform dress and decoration, and others are thanked for their services.

They are all to meet with us.

How to Reconquer a Democratic majority in Kansas seems remains at the time to the next meeting, having many of his friends.

The trial of Mr. Isaac Russell for killing Hopper is progressing at Houston, Tex. That bar is the evidence clearly establishes the fact that he was a negro.

Some negroes and men with their faces blacked up, a Democratic negro, are seen every day. Having the use of his hands, however, it is evident that he is a negro.

Commissioner Special Acted in Nashville, as in many other things, to have their hands tied.

It is evident of one's own meanness.

The Times is now published.

They are placed for their uniform dress and decoration, and others are thanked for their services.

They are all to meet with us.

How to Reconquer a Democratic majority in Kansas seems remains at the time to the next meeting, having many of his friends.

The trial of Mr. Isaac Russell for killing Hopper is progressing at Houston, Tex. That bar is the evidence clearly establishes the fact that he was a negro.

Some negroes and men with their faces blacked up, a Democratic negro, are seen every day. Having the use of his hands, however, it is evident that he is a negro.

Commissioner Special Acted in Nashville, as in many other things, to have their hands tied.

It is evident of one's own meanness.

The Times is now published.

They are placed for their uniform dress and decoration, and others are thanked for their services.

They are all to meet with us.

How to Reconquer a Democratic majority in Kansas seems remains at the time to the next meeting, having many of his friends.

The trial of Mr. Isaac Russell for killing Hopper is progressing at Houston, Tex. That bar is the evidence clearly establishes the fact that he was a negro.

Some negroes and men with their faces blacked up, a Democratic negro, are seen every day. Having the use of his hands, however, it is evident that he is a negro.

Commissioner Special Acted in Nashville, as in many other things, to have their hands tied.

It is evident of one's own meanness.

The Times is now published.

They are placed for their uniform dress and decoration, and others are thanked for their services.

They are all to meet with us.

How to Reconquer a Democratic majority in Kansas seems remains at the time to the next meeting, having many of his friends.

The trial of Mr. Isaac Russell for killing Hopper is progressing at Houston, Tex. That bar is the evidence clearly establishes the fact that he was a negro.

Some negroes and men with their faces blacked up, a Democratic negro, are seen every day. Having the use of his hands, however, it is evident that he is a negro.

Commissioner Special Acted in Nashville, as in many other things, to have their hands tied.

It is evident of one's own meanness.

The Times is now published.

They are placed for their uniform dress and decoration, and others are thanked for their services.

They are all to meet with us.

How to Reconquer a Democratic majority in Kansas seems remains at the time to the next meeting, having many of his friends.

The trial of Mr. Isaac Russell for killing Hopper is progressing at Houston, Tex. That bar is the evidence clearly establishes the fact that he was a negro.

TENNESSEE.

A Popular View of the Impending Conflict.

THE ENORMITIES OF BROWN LOWISM.

Mysteries and Miseries of Radical Rule in a Reconstructed State.

To the Editor of the Commercial Journal.

NASHVILLE, August 7th, 1868.

The people of Tennessee never before looked so anxiously to the session of the legislative assembly as they have done to the convening of the present special session of the Legislature. Not only did such anxiety pervade the minds of all people as sprang upon them now, in view of the crisis upon which we are entering, and which fills with well-founded alarm all friends of our country and its institutions. That we are on the edge of danger is a nervous character no one pretends to deny. The very atmosphere we breathe is fraught with forebodings of evil. That we are to be overtaken by misfortune, either for the better or for the worse, and that speedily, is clearly foreseen and admitted by all reflecting minds. Let the world be their Warning after warning has been sounded, but the mad and intoxicated spirit of the South has run on running us to swift and inevitable destruction.

Some were disposed to hope that the Governor in his message would recommend specific measures, as the Legislature was to be addressed. Measures as would forever cancel the great wrongs which we have so long and so patiently endured, and then secure the peace, prosperity and domestic happiness of the nation. But he did not entertain such a hope. History would have been falsified if such had been the case.

The aggressive spirit of many among us—the vindictive disposition, assisted by armed power, now dominant.

The memory of our past crime seems to kindle the basest fires of malice and revenge, and drives us onward to the commission of still more sins.

The scenes of carnage were never before stained by a State paper equal in unblushing atrocity to the recent message of the man called Governor, who lets it over the heads of all the thousands disengaged from Tennessee.

Language and meaning are unmistakable. It calls for an army of legalized murder and plunder, necessarily to be employed by the Southern society and the most of our most enterprising and thriving statesmen and for victims for unbridled lust—onwards gloating in crime and executive malice—and for war.

What can any dare to say that such instruments are to be used?

The memory of our past crime seems to kindle the basest fires of malice and revenge, and drives us onward to the commission of still more sins.

The scenes of carnage were never before stained by a State paper equal in unblushing atrocity to the recent message of the man called Governor, who lets it over the heads of all the thousands disengaged from Tennessee.

Language and meaning are unmistakable. It calls for an army of legalized murder and plunder, necessarily to be employed by the Southern society and the most of our most enterprising and thriving statesmen and for victims for unbridled lust—onwards gloating in crime and executive malice—and for war.

What can any dare to say that such instruments are to be used?

The memory of our past crime seems to kindle the basest fires of malice and revenge, and drives us onward to the commission of still more sins.

The scenes of carnage were never before stained by a State paper equal in unblushing atrocity to the recent message of the man called Governor, who lets it over the heads of all the thousands disengaged from Tennessee.

Language and meaning are unmistakable. It calls for an army of legalized murder and plunder, necessarily to be employed by the Southern society and the most of our most enterprising and thriving statesmen and for victims for unbridled lust—onwards gloating in crime and executive malice—and for war.

What can any dare to say that such instruments are to be used?

The memory of our past crime seems to kindle the basest fires of malice and revenge, and drives us onward to the commission of still more sins.

The scenes of carnage were never before stained by a State paper equal in unblushing atrocity to the recent message of the man called Governor, who lets it over the heads of all the thousands disengaged from Tennessee.

Language and meaning are unmistakable. It calls for an army of legalized murder and plunder, necessarily to be employed by the Southern society and the most of our most enterprising and thriving statesmen and for victims for unbridled lust—onwards gloating in crime and executive malice—and for war.

What can any dare to say that such instruments are to be used?

The memory of our past crime seems to kindle the basest fires of malice and revenge, and drives us onward to the commission of still more sins.

The scenes of carnage were never before stained by a State paper equal in unblushing atrocity to the recent message of the man called Governor, who lets it over the heads of all the thousands disengaged from Tennessee.

Language and meaning are unmistakable. It calls for an army of legalized murder and plunder, necessarily to be employed by the Southern society and the most of our most enterprising and thriving statesmen and for victims for unbridled lust—onwards gloating in crime and executive malice—and for war.

What can any dare to say that such instruments are to be used?

The memory of our past crime seems to kindle the basest fires of malice and revenge, and drives us onward to the commission of still more sins.

The scenes of carnage were never before stained by a State paper equal in unblushing atrocity to the recent message of the man called Governor, who lets it over the heads of all the thousands disengaged from Tennessee.

Language and meaning are unmistakable. It calls for an army of legalized murder and plunder, necessarily to be employed by the Southern society and the most of our most enterprising and thriving statesmen and for victims for unbridled lust—onwards gloating in crime and executive malice—and for war.

What can any dare to say that such instruments are to be used?

The memory of our past crime seems to kindle the basest fires of malice and revenge, and drives us onward to the commission of still more sins.

The scenes of carnage were never before stained by a State paper equal in unblushing atrocity to the recent message of the man called Governor, who lets it over the heads of all the thousands disengaged from Tennessee.

Language and meaning are unmistakable. It calls for an army of legalized murder and plunder, necessarily to be employed by the Southern society and the most of our most enterprising and thriving statesmen and for victims for unbridled lust—onwards gloating in crime and executive malice—and for war.

What can any dare to say that such instruments are to be used?

The memory of our past crime seems to kindle the basest fires of malice and revenge, and drives us onward to the commission of still more sins.

The scenes of carnage were never before stained by a State paper equal in unblushing atrocity to the recent message of the man called Governor, who lets it over the heads of all the thousands disengaged from Tennessee.

Language and meaning are government was founded on principles of freedom and constitutionality. And he was born and brought up in a state of every republican principle. Let me act, and the peace of the State and the gratitude of a disinterested people for an act of justice will be their reward, and their graves caused by the living and to be spared by generations yet unknown.

But there is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom? Tennessee has been cursed with during the several sessions of Congress held since the war began. The events of this body are similar to those that filled the witches' cauldron in the present parliamentary system. The Washington Evening Star, Aug. 5, 1868.

A scene this morning, at which I "assisted" in the French way, convinced me more than ever that no city on the habitations of man will be at any time so entirely cut off from the rest of the world as the city of Washington. The former is a great, good, and peaceful adventure as the city of Washington has been cursed with during the several sessions of Congress held since the war began.

But there is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

There is a question which presents itself, and that is, what will the government do with the people? To whom?

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

500 words inserted into this column at $1 per line per word.

A. PETERSON & CO., THOMAS AND CO., Importers and Exporters, 100 Main street, Louisville, Ky.; A. Peterson and Co., Thomas and Co., Louisville and Builders, Inc., Main & E. Market.
DEPARTMENT & FORWARDING CO., INC., Main street, Louisville, Ky.; Frank C. Moore,
President and Manager.

EDWARDS, D. P., Miners, Inventors and Publishers, 100 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.;
GUY HENRY, Druggist, retail, northern corner of Third and Green streets.
HABERSON, DR., Druggist, 100 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.; Frank C. Moore,
President and Co., Louisville, Ky.;
ENRICK W. M., Lawyer and Law-maker of Louisville, Ky.; George W. Moore,
General Attorney at Law.

KENNEDY, BEN D., General Attorney at Law, Louisville, Ky.; John C. Kennedy, Esq., Louisville, Ky.

L. G. KELLOGG & CO., Knapsack Co., proprietors, Main and Market streets.

M. KNIGHT, W., Lawyer, Whole-saler and Manufacturer of Knives, 100 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.

M. LEEBOURG, BULLETT, A. CO., Steam Market, 100 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.

N. FORD, BUCHANAN & CO., Whole-salers of Knives, 100 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.

STEAM ENGINE WORKS, Main and Market
streets, Louisville, Ky.

NEW YORK STORE, S. Barker & Co., Dry
Goods, 100 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.

POST OFFICE, Louisville, Ky., Post Master and Commission Merchant, 100 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.

PENNINGTON, (Walter) in Stores of Frank C. Moore, 100 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.

RAYMOND & CO., Importers in Medicine and Drugs, 100 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.

ROBINSON & CO., H. A., Wholesale Drap-ers, 100 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.

ROBERTSON, JAMES, Druggist, 100 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.

SCHROEDER & SONS, J. H., Wm. L.,
John, Wm. L., Jr., and Wm. L., Jr., 100 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.

THOMAS & CO., W., General Commercial Agents, 100 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.

W. W. WALTERS, Druggist, Main and Market
streets, Louisville, Ky.

WATSON & CO., DAN. A., Clothing
Manufacturers, 100 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.

Louisville Journal.

MONDAY, AUGUST 6, 3 A.M.

THE CITY.

Our Terms.

The DAILY JOURNAL is delivered in the city at $100 per month, payable to the carrier. It is sent by mail at $100 per annum, payable in advance.

Great Kentucky Fair.

We thank the secretary, J. M. Ross, Esq., for a "complimentary" to this fair, which is to be held next Saturday on Tuesday, September 6, and the three succeeding days.

Another Person.

The man Chris Schick, whose name figured conspicuously in the police reports last week, was not one of the newspaper chiselers. Schick, it is now known, was one of the most orderly and modest young men in the city.

An Error.

It has been stated in many of the newspapers that the State fair at Louisville opened on the 1st of September. This is a mistake. Our fair begins on the 8th of September, while that of Marion county opens at Lebanon on the 15th, and lasts five days.

Drummers on Board.

A party of drummers got aboard a car on route to Cedar Hill yesterday afternoon, and conducted themselves so vulgarly that one or two lady passengers alighted and avoided the car as a pestilence. The brutal should have been landed in the calaboose.

On Saturday evening a man named Pat Whelan and some two or three others got into a row on Bowan and Thirteenth street, Whelan, in attempting to draw his pistol, discharged the weapon in his pocket, and contents lodged in one of his pockets, produced a painful but not a dangerous wound.

Captured at Last.

Letta Miller, who about two years ago, was captured in a case of stealing at the Shely Street Store, New Albany, at the time he had eluded the police, was arrested yesterday for stealing a shot gun and some other articles from Fred Robt., who lives in Georgetown. He was arrested by Capt. J. T. L. Lanham, and confined in the Clay street Station House.

Our Tops.

There was some excitement yesterday morning about eleven o'clock, near the corner of Market and Eleventh streets, occasioned by a dispute between two men about the ownership of a set of pistols. Two were drawn and knife brandished, but nobody was hurt; in the confusion the valuable canes were snatched away, and so the matter ended.

New Advertisements.

Began Brothers, advertising rooms to rent, rockaway is advertised for sale at William & Sedman's stable.

King Solomon's R. A. Chapter No. 15 will meet to-night at Masonic Temple, Geo. C. Hunter & Co. advertise a lot of standard sheetings in another column.

W. A. Merriweather announces a war-meeting to be held against the estate of John Rake.

The admirers of Planchette will find an advertisement of the little wonder elsewhere in our issue this morning.

Concordia Company announced a meeting of the police, Col. John C. Lee, at the United States Hotel, Wednesday, the 12th inst.

Speed, Magens & Co. advertise every style and description of chandeliers, hand-globes, &c., in stock, in WALLSTOCKHOLDER.

We would call the attention of our merchants to the Herald, published weekly at Griffin, Ga., and sold it as a good medium of advertising.

The attention of our business men is directed to the advertisement of the White County Record, a weekly paper published at Sevierville, Ark.

The St. Joseph (Mo.) Daily, and Weekly Gentry gives its call to the public this morning to buy its stock. It offers a good medium for advertising.

The attention of those having claims in Arkansas for collection will do well to consult the advertisement in another column of the Journal of Reg. No. H., Thompson, 100 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.

The single specimen of Amaranthus shown at the Fair, Mrs. Kennedy, was grown from a seed sent from Mr. C. C. Moore, of France, and is worthy of culture on account of its enormous size, perplexing and brilliant color.

W. C. Cooper had tested a team of Hartford horses, and Mr. Baker a bottle of Cattleya wine, both samples were sound and perfect.

Vegetables—Some very fine vegetables were shown by Mr. T. S. Kennedy at his booth of the Fair, and the same were the best evidence of their superiority to those he will have on sale in the section, he said.

They were the largest, were the best, averaging four inches in length, tender and succulent. Uncle Harry Beane, the famous variety so long popular in the market, had no sympathy for radicchio, Jacobinian, or negrino. I believe that if the party now in power is permitted to reign another four years, the same will be done.

Another at Lexington, Ky., writes: "The JOURNAL is winning friends here among the negroes, and consider the election of Seymour and Blair as certain." Another Mount Pleasant, Tenn., writing for the JOURNAL, says: "I will send you some names soon, as your paper is very much sought after here; the principles advocated by the writer of the article in the section though few of them are good, are well worth reading." Another at Cincinnati will take away from us the trade of Cincinnati from this point. In this I have heretofore admitted there is some plausibility. But the trade we lose in Cincinnati must be much more than compensated by the trade of more Southern points, for which we will have more than equal chances.

For the life of me I cannot see the great advantages to be derived by our city by the removal of other cities, and the other at Lexington, Ky., writes: "The JOURNAL is winning friends here among the negroes, and consider the election of Seymour and Blair as certain." Another at Cleveland, Tenn., writes: "In writing around for a club of ten subscribers, conclude the JOURNAL is doing all it can to secure that the negroes will be good for the right." Another at Galveston, Tex., writing to the Secretary of the JOURNAL COMPANY, says: "Write this note and send this remittance to you individually, think of us in Louisville?" In the contrary, we want the trade between Cincinnati and Louisville to be as great as possible, and that will give us a large share of the trade with all Southern points.

In addition to this we procure thereby the transportation of freight and passengers from the South to Cincinnati. In these respects we have comparatively no competition, as we propose to combine the elements of speed, comfort and cheap freight. The point of departure by rail is Galveston. In injurious competition with us is a boat at Cincinnati which takes away from us the trade of Cincinnati in November. We are all in high spirits over the prospects, and consider the election of Seymour and Blair as certain." Another Mount Pleasant, Tenn., writing for the JOURNAL, says: "I will send you some names soon, as your paper is very much sought after here; the principles advocated by the writer of the article in the section though few of them are good, are well worth reading." Another at Lexington, Ky., writes: "The JOURNAL is winning friends here among the negroes, and consider the election of Seymour and Blair as certain." Another at Cleveland, Tenn., writes: "In writing around for a club of ten subscribers, conclude the JOURNAL is doing all it can to secure that the negroes will be good for the right." Another at Galveston, Tex., writing to the Secretary of the JOURNAL COMPANY, says: "Write this note and send this remittance to you individually, think of us in Louisville?" In the contrary, we want the trade between Cincinnati and Louisville to be as great as possible, and that will give us a large share of the trade with all Southern points.

In addition to this we procure thereby the transportation of freight and passengers from the South to Cincinnati. In these respects we have comparatively no competition, as we propose to combine the elements of speed, comfort and cheap freight. The point of departure by rail is Galveston.

Injurious competition with us is a boat at Cincinnati which takes away from us the trade of Cincinnati in November. We are all in high spirits over the prospects, and consider the election of Seymour and Blair as certain." Another at Lexington, Ky., writes: "The JOURNAL is winning friends here among the negroes, and consider the election of Seymour and Blair as certain." Another at Cleveland, Tenn., writing for the JOURNAL, says: "I will send you some names soon, as your paper is very much sought after here; the principles advocated by the writer of the article in the section though few of them are good, are well worth reading." Another at Galveston, Tex., writing to the Secretary of the JOURNAL COMPANY, says: "Write this note and send this remittance to you individually, think of us in Louisville?" In the contrary, we want the trade between Cincinnati and Louisville to be as great as possible, and that will give us a large share of the trade with all Southern points.

In addition to this we procure thereby the transportation of freight and passengers from the South to Cincinnati. In these respects we have comparatively no competition, as we propose to combine the elements of speed, comfort and cheap freight. The point of departure by rail is Galveston.

Injurious competition with us is a boat at Cincinnati which takes away from us the trade of Cincinnati in November. We are all in high spirits over the prospects, and consider the election of Seymour and Blair as certain." Another at Lexington, Ky., writes: "The JOURNAL is winning friends here among the negroes, and consider the election of Seymour and Blair as certain." Another at Cleveland, Tenn., writing for the JOURNAL, says: "I will send you some names soon, as your paper is very much sought after here; the principles advocated by the writer of the article in the section though few of them are good, are well worth reading." Another at Galveston, Tex., writing to the Secretary of the JOURNAL COMPANY, says: "Write this note and send this remittance to you individually, think of us in Louisville?" In the contrary, we want the trade between Cincinnati and Louisville to be as great as possible, and that will give us a large share of the trade with all Southern points.

In addition to this we procure thereby the transportation of freight and passengers from the South to Cincinnati. In these respects we have comparatively no competition, as we propose to combine the elements of speed, comfort and cheap freight. The point of departure by rail is Galveston.

Injurious competition with us is a boat at Cincinnati which takes away from us the trade of Cincinnati in November. We are all in high spirits over the prospects, and consider the election of Seymour and Blair as certain." Another at Lexington, Ky., writes: "The JOURNAL is winning friends here among the negroes, and consider the election of Seymour and Blair as certain." Another at Cleveland, Tenn., writing for the JOURNAL, says: "I will send you some names soon, as your paper is very much sought after here; the principles advocated by the writer of the article in the section though few of them are good, are well worth reading." Another at Galveston, Tex., writing to the Secretary of the JOURNAL COMPANY, says: "Write this note and send this remittance to you individually, think of us in Louisville?" In the contrary, we want the trade between Cincinnati and Louisville to be as great as possible, and that will give us a large share of the trade with all Southern points.

In addition to this we procure thereby the transportation of freight and passengers from the South to Cincinnati. In these respects we have comparatively no competition, as we propose to combine the elements of speed, comfort and cheap freight. The point of departure by rail is Galveston.

Injurious competition with us is a boat at Cincinnati which takes away from us the trade of Cincinnati in November. We are all in high spirits over the prospects, and consider the election of Seymour and Blair as certain." Another at Lexington, Ky., writes: "The JOURNAL is winning friends here among the negroes, and consider the election of Seymour and Blair as certain." Another at Cleveland, Tenn., writing for the JOURNAL, says: "I will send you some names soon, as your paper is very much sought after here; the principles advocated by the writer of the article in the section though few of them are good, are well worth reading." Another at Galveston, Tex., writing to the Secretary of the JOURNAL COMPANY, says: "Write this note and send this remittance to you individually, think of us in Louisville?" In the contrary, we want the trade between Cincinnati and Louisville to be as great as possible, and that will give us a large share of the trade with all Southern points.

In addition to this we procure thereby the transportation of freight and passengers from the South to Cincinnati. In these respects we have comparatively no competition, as we propose to combine the elements of speed, comfort and cheap freight. The point of departure by rail is Galveston.

Injurious competition with us is a boat at Cincinnati which takes away from us the trade of Cincinnati in November. We are all in high spirits over the prospects, and consider the election of Seymour and Blair as certain." Another at Lexington, Ky., writes: "The JOURNAL is winning friends here among the negroes, and consider the election of Seymour and Blair as certain." Another at Cleveland, Tenn., writing for the JOURNAL, says: "I will send you some names soon, as your paper is very much sought after here; the principles advocated by the writer of the article in the section though few of them are good, are well worth reading." Another at Galveston, Tex., writing to the Secretary of the JOURNAL COMPANY, says: "Write this note and send this remittance to you individually, think of us in Louisville?" In the contrary, we want the trade between Cincinnati and Louisville to be as great as possible, and that will give us a large share of the trade with all Southern points.

In addition to this we procure thereby the transportation of freight and passengers from the South to Cincinnati. In these respects we have comparatively no competition, as we propose to combine the elements of speed, comfort and cheap freight. The point of departure by rail is Galveston.

Injurious competition with us is a boat at Cincinnati which takes away from us the trade of Cincinnati in November. We are all in high spirits over the prospects, and consider the election of Seymour and Blair as certain." Another at Lexington, Ky., writes: "The JOURNAL is winning friends here among the negroes, and consider the election of Seymour and Blair as certain." Another at Cleveland, Tenn., writing for the JOURNAL, says: "I will send you some names soon, as your paper is very much sought after here; the principles advocated by the writer of the article in the section though few of them are good, are well worth reading." Another at Galveston, Tex., writing to the Secretary of the JOURNAL COMPANY, says: "Write this note and send this remittance to you individually, think of us in Louisville?" In the contrary, we want the trade between Cincinnati and Louisville to be as great as possible, and that will give us a large share of the trade with all Southern points.

In addition to this we procure thereby the transportation of freight and passengers from the South to Cincinnati. In these respects we have comparatively no competition, as we propose to combine the elements of speed, comfort and cheap freight. The point of departure by rail is Galveston.

Injurious competition with us is a boat at Cincinnati which takes away from us the trade of Cincinnati in November. We are all in high spirits over the prospects, and consider the election of Seymour and Blair as certain." Another at Lexington, Ky., writes: "The JOURNAL is winning friends here among the negroes, and consider the election of Seymour and Blair as certain." Another at Cleveland, Tenn., writing for the JOURNAL, says: "I will send you some names soon, as your paper is very much sought after here; the principles advocated by the writer of the article in the section though few of them are good, are well worth reading." Another at Galveston, Tex., writing to the Secretary of the JOURNAL COMPANY, says: "Write this note and send this remittance to you individually, think of us in Louisville?" In the contrary, we want the trade between Cincinnati and Louisville to be as great as possible, and that will give us a large share of the trade with all Southern points.

In addition to this we procure thereby the transportation of freight and passengers from the South to Cincinnati. In these respects we have comparatively no competition, as we propose to combine the elements of speed, comfort and cheap freight. The point of departure by rail is Galveston.

Injurious competition with us is a boat at Cincinnati which takes away from us the trade of Cincinnati in November. We are all in high spirits over the prospects, and consider the election of Seymour and Blair as certain." Another at Lexington, Ky., writes: "The JOURNAL is winning friends here among the negroes, and consider the election of Seymour and Blair as certain." Another at Cleveland, Tenn., writing for the JOURNAL, says: "I will send you some names soon, as your paper is very much sought after here; the principles advocated by the writer of the article in the section though few of them are good, are well worth reading." Another at Galveston, Tex., writing to the Secretary of the JOURNAL COMPANY, says: "Write this note and send this remittance to you individually, think of us in Louisville?" In the contrary, we want the trade between Cincinnati and Louisville to be as great as possible, and that will give us a large share of the trade with all Southern points.

In addition to this we procure thereby the transportation of freight and passengers from the South to Cincinnati. In these respects we have comparatively no competition, as we propose to combine the elements of speed, comfort and cheap freight. The point of departure by rail is Galveston.

Injurious competition with us is a boat at Cincinnati which takes away from us the trade of Cincinnati in November. We are all in high spirits over the prospects, and consider the election of Seymour and Blair as certain." Another at Lexington, Ky., writes: "The JOURNAL is winning friends here among the negroes, and consider the election of Seymour and Blair as certain." Another at Cleveland, Tenn., writing for the JOURNAL, says: "I will send you some names soon, as your paper is very much sought after here; the principles advocated by the writer of the article in the section though few of them are good, are well worth reading." Another at Galveston, Tex., writing to the Secretary of the JOURNAL COMPANY, says: "Write this note and send this remittance to you individually, think of us in Louisville?" In the contrary, we want the trade between Cincinnati and Louisville to be as great as possible, and that will give us a large share of the trade with all Southern points.

In addition to this we procure thereby the transportation of freight and passengers from the South to Cincinnati. In these respects we have comparatively no competition, as we propose to combine the elements of speed, comfort and cheap freight. The point of departure by rail is Galveston.

Injurious competition with us is a boat at Cincinnati which takes away from us the trade of Cincinnati in November. We are all in high spirits over the prospects, and consider the election of Seymour and Blair as certain." Another at Lexington, Ky., writes: "The JOURNAL is winning friends here among the negroes, and consider the election of Seymour and Blair as certain." Another at Cleveland, Tenn., writing for the JOURNAL, says: "I will send you some names soon, as your paper is very much sought after here; the principles advocated by the writer of the article in the section though few of them are good, are well worth reading." Another at Galveston, Tex., writing to the Secretary of the JOURNAL COMPANY, says: "Write this note and send this remittance to you individually, think of us in Louisville?" In the contrary, we want the trade between Cincinnati and Louisville to be as great as possible, and that will give us a large share of the trade with all Southern points.

In addition to this we procure thereby the transportation of freight and passengers from the South to Cincinnati. In these respects we have comparatively no competition, as we propose to combine the elements of speed, comfort and cheap freight. The point of departure by rail is Galveston.

Injurious competition with us is a boat at Cincinnati which takes away from us the trade of Cincinnati in November. We are all in high spirits over the prospects, and consider the election of Seymour and Blair as certain." Another at Lexington, Ky., writes: "The JOURNAL is winning friends here among the